

Link project management has set the following key priorities and policy of the integrated management system (IMS) for sustainable development of the company in the area of project activities in civil engineering.

PRIORITIES

- Satisfied customers
- Satisfied employees
- Minimization of negative impacts of activities on the environment, safety and respect for health

POLICY OF THE IMS

- Active respect of the set priorities by all employees*
- Permanent skills upgrading and personnel development of the employees*
- Continuous improvement of working conditions*
- Regularly setting and reviewing IMS targets and target values*
- Meeting the requirements of applicable laws and regulations and the requirements of other stakeholders*
- Active prevention of environmental pollution and health protection at work*
- Regular assessment, review and continuous improvement of IMS processes*